FRINGING OUT THE OLD RING IN THE NEW.

Ring out the grief that saps the mind. For those that here we see no more; Ring out the fond of rich and poor; Ring in redress to all mankind. Ring out a slowly dying cause; And ancient forms of party strife; Ring in the nobler modes of life; With sweeter manners, purer laws. Ring out the want, the care, the sin; The selfishness, the coldness of the times; Ring out, ring out, my mournful hymes; But ring the falter minstrel in.

WEDDINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace R. Ramey, last evening announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Ramey, to Mr. Laurence Washburn De Mott, headmaster of the Army and Navy Preparatory School, Washington. Only the immediate relatives and a few friends of the two families represented were in attendance. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hugh T. Smith, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church. Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. De Mott left for a northern bridal trip. Upon their return, January 15, they will reside at their apartments on Connecticut avenue, Washington.

There was a large attendance and the entertainment was greatly enjoyed.

CHILD Dies of Grief.

Chatham, N. J., Dec. 31.—Died of grief is the official verdict on the death today of nine-year-old Inez O'Hara. THE BANK FAILURE.

Mr. Francis Coates, jr., a national bank examiner of the Treasury Department, arrived here from Richmond at noon today and began the work of examining the affairs of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation which closed its doors Thursday morning following the appointment of receivers. The receivers say that when Mr. Coates completes his work, a report of the affairs of the institution will be made public.

Judge Norton, one of the receivers, has been notified by Mr. R. C. L. Muncure, of the county, who represents some of the depositors, that on Saturday morning next he will apply to Judge Barley, of the Corporation Court for the appointment of an additional receiver to look after the interests of the depositors. The proposition, however, does not meet with the approval of many of the depositors, or their representatives, who think that the receivers are all that are necessary for the work. President Rixey is still ill with pneumonia, and is in Washington home. Besides being president of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Company, Mr. Rixey is a director of the Jefferson National Bank, of Charlottesville; the Second National Bank, of Culpeper, and the Rappahannock National Bank of Washington, Va. Mr. Rixey will not again have any connection with the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Company, but will continue on the directory boards of the other banks, according to his son, C. Jones Rixey, jr. He realizes that the finances of the former institution are in such a condition that it cannot continue in business.

"As soon as the affairs of the bank can be adjusted the project will be abandoned," says Mr. Rixey, jr. "Until the books have been gone over we can make no statement as to what settlement will be made with the depositors. It is certain that the doors of the bank will remain closed." Mr. Coates this afternoon stated that while in Richmond he had conversed with members of the State Corporation Commission; he had also seen the statements of the state examiner concerning the bank and he has also hurriedly gone over the securities turned over by Mr. Rixey to the bank and now sees no reason why any depositors should feel any uneasiness about being paid in full. Mr. Coates also says that all that is necessary now is conservative and proper handling of the assets of the bank.

There is nothing further to report concerning the closing of the bank and except among those immediately interested comment on the subject is dying out.

TO OUR PATRONS:

Not because it is an honored custom, but because of the sincerity of our appreciation we want to take this year-end opportunity to thank you for any part you have played in our business prosperity during the year.

Nineteen-ten has been a prosperous year for us. Our sales show a substantial increase, necessitating extensions in our equipment and facilities which are worthy of notice, but the most satisfactory feature of the year's business is that uniformly satisfactory relations that have existed with our customers.

We have endeavored to serve our patrons without discrimination to the best of our ability, and where differences have arisen, which are certain to come up in a business like ours, our patrons have been generous to a high degree.

We feel that with the opening of the New Year we shall be in a still better position to serve you than we ever have been in the past, and we bespeak for nineteen-eleven the same consideration, good will and support that you have shown us in the year just closing.

Wishing every one a Happy and Prosperous New Year. Respectfully, SWAN BROS.
